Hot Springs High School

To a man who represents the qualities of understanding, fairness, friendliness, but above all, interest in the individual student, WE DEDICATE THE 1960 BISON.

MR. HAROLD F. WILSON came to Hot Springs as a coach in 1934, and in 1956 was elevated to principal of the high school.

Administration and Faculty

This, my first year of being associated with this school system and the community of Hot Springs, has been interesting and informative. I have learned how a community can give their support to something they believe in such as the bond election last fall. I have also learned how a student body can cooperate with changes in school policy which were inevitable with any administrative change. Needless to say, these things are appreciated.

To the students who are completing their high school careers, I wish you the best of everything. To all students, I hope that you have the same feeling of pride as I do in being a part of this school system.

The teacher's job is one of self-sacrifice and dedication. Even though their profession is a noble one, it is one receiving small reward and little appreciation. Yet, through their never-ceasing efforts they bring the highest standards of education to Hot Springs High School.

If they can inspire even a small group to strive for higher goals and reach success in life, their efforts have been well rewarded.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

QUEEN MARY KAY and her attendants Karolyn Beiver, Darlene Whitehead, Gretchen Killinger, and Karen Keasling reigned over the activities of H.S.'s 22nd annual Homecoming.

After being crowned by Student Council President, Robert Reider, Mary Kay's first official act was to bless the football offered by co-captain, Don O'Malley.

QUEEN-ELECT Mary Kay touched the torch to spark a flaming "H", symbol of a Homecoming gridiron victory.

FIRST HONORS in the float contest were copped by the Sophomore Class.

Homecoming

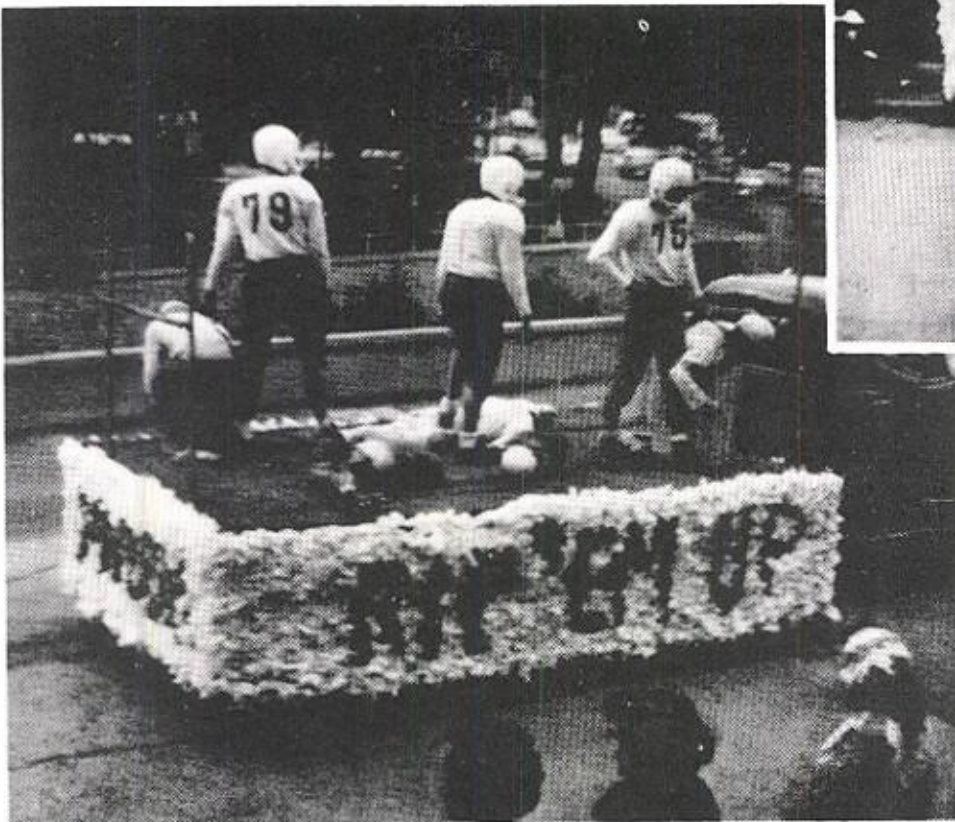

An evening pep rally at the Woodward Field triggered the two days of activities that marked the 1959 Homecoming. Pep talks were given by Superintendent Crosswait and alumni Jim Lovell and Speed McAllister. The evening was climaxed by a snake dance through the town led by the cheerleaders.

The following afternoon there was a parade of floats entered by classes and organizations, which the Sophomore float, "Wash 'Em Out", won.

Coronation ceremonies were held just before the Bison-Golddiggers game. As the band formed a huge heart in the center of the football field, convertibles carrying the five candidates circled in around the track. The girls were escorted to the center of the heart by band members, where Mary Kay Frazier was announced Homecoming Queen by Del Brandt, MC.

Homecoming drew to a close with the annual student-alumni dance in the school gym.

SECOND place in the homecoming parade was taken by the Freshmen with their float, "Rip 'Em Up"; the Seniors third; and the Juniors' "Out Dig the Diggers" died in fourth place.

HERBERT GAGE bought a Connecticut farm to escape the distractions of New York City while he wrote a best seller only to find another distraction in the form of Matt Rockwell, son of the former owners of the house.

JONATHAN and Mahilda Rockwell, eccentric, elderly New Englanders, who had been presumed dead, returned bag and baggage to set up their old wood-burning range in the bedroom and make themselves comfortable.

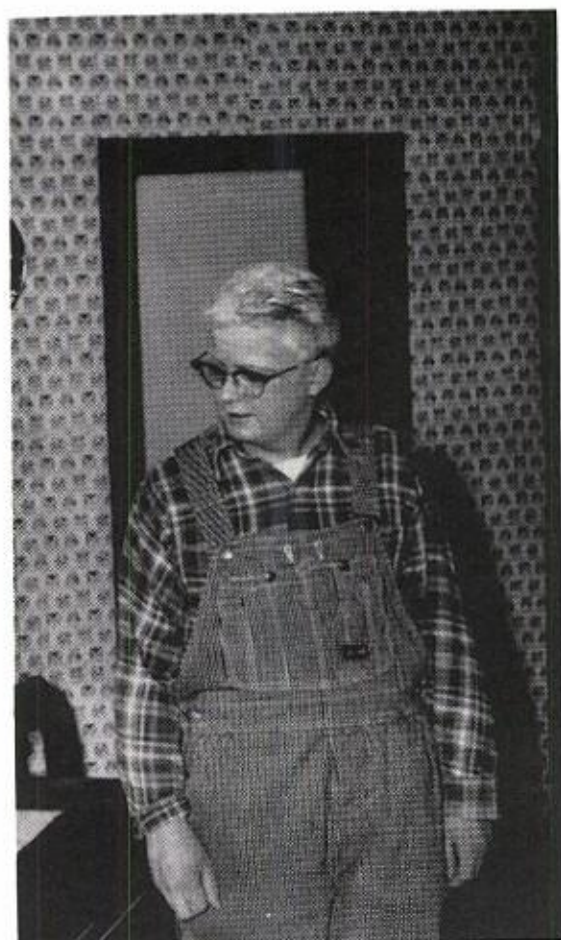

"IT WAS A FRIGHTENED, desperate, soul-chilling moo-moo-oo-oo." Herbert describes his heroic feat of saving a cow to an avid audience. Members of the cast were Don Strickland, who portrayed Carson, the local constable. Kathy Hart depicted Marge Gage, the mother, while Walter Judd was seen in the part of her husband, Herbert. Jack O'Malley played Matt Rockwell; J.T. Richer was Mr. Loomis, a lawyer; and Susan Wilson as Barbara Gage, fiancée of George Husted (Hugh Crowell). Ruth Duncan was cast as tom-boyish Sarah Gage, youngest member of the Gage clan, while Martha Millett took the part of the middle sister,

The Junior Class Presents

"January Thaw"

STRANDED in the midst of a blizzard without any electricity or transportation, and only corn flakes, molasses and olives for breakfast, a completely frustrated father Gage retorts, "Say grace for corn flakes - and stuffed olives?"

Paula. Lana Wasserberger opened the play as the snappish maid, Frieda, who departed rapidly and permanently when the Rockwells returned. Marilyn Gorsuch excelled in the part of lame Mahilda, wife of Jonathan Rockwell (Ray Woodsend). The news of the Rockwell's return was conveyed throughout the neighborhood by an old family friend, Uncle Walter (Steve Hoy). The attractive colonial setting was designed by the director, Mr. Robison, and was brought into being by Rodney Newberg, Stage Manager, and his crew: Hugh Crowell, Mike McCune, Don Strickland, Janet Hilgenberg, and Luanne Englebert.

"Shy Guy"

TO KEEP the real source of his sudden wealth hidden from his parents and girl friend, Fred explained that he had been teaching Miss Whipple, a wealthy but eccentric old lady, the fundamentals of football.

LARRY HOPED to frighten an unexpected Miss Whipple away and keep the truth from coming out by telling her that Fred was mentally incompetent and apt to be dangerous. Miss Whipple was so upset with the news that she took sleeping pills instead of aspirin.

LARRY BELIEVED that bill collector, Bill Sterling, was going to repossess Icabod, a puppy he bought for his girl on the installment plan.

Senior Class Play. . . .

When Fred Hastings (Carl Cockerham) spends more money than his parents believe he is earning, when his friend, Larry Madison (Neal Osman), attempts to get his chum out of hot water, and when an eccentric old lady of eighty decides to play football, any attempt at trying to preserve the sanity of other casual observers becomes futile.

Fred's mother, Cora (DeLila Strickland), is planning a birthday for Fred's girl, Nancy (Sally Brimmer), but when two beautiful strangers appear in the persons of Gloria Patterson (Virginia Neimann) and Lois Corwin (Mary Kay Frazier), the plot thickens. Fred is doomed; his job as a model for Glamour Girl Cosmetics is about to be revealed. But leave everything to Larry, Larry insists. Gilbert Hastings, Fred's father (Bill Hinek), is furious when he learns of Fred's modeling job. Nancy isn't sure how she feels about it;

Julie Tucker's (Gretchen Killinger) main concern is being able to keep the puppy Larry has bought for her on the installment plan. And that's when Melinda Whipple (Darlene Whitehead), that wiry bundle of energy, eighty years strong, appears.

A birthday party? It turns out to be something slightly less than an open house affair, with a Mr. Danburry (James Johnson) looking for local television talent, Bill Sterling (Duane Smith) looking for his girl, and Melinda Whipple looking for enough space in which to make a touchdown.

The play was directed by Gerald Robison, with Karolyn Biever as the student director. Zane Dickinson and Charlie Bahr were the stage managers, and Bill Wilson the business manager. The crew consisted of: Zane Dickinson, Charlie Bahr, Don O'Malley, Bill Hinek, Wayne Makeeff, and Carl Cockerham.

Junior-Senior Prom

"Isle of Golden Dreams" was the theme chosen by the Juniors for their prom and banquet. Nets, streamers, balloons, and palm trees carried out the theme of what most agree was the most successful prom in the history of Hot Springs High School. A movie and breakfast concluded the post-prom activities.

GRAND MARCH led by Junior Class President, Gary Brandt, and Pat Stanley opened the prom. Dancing continued until midnight.

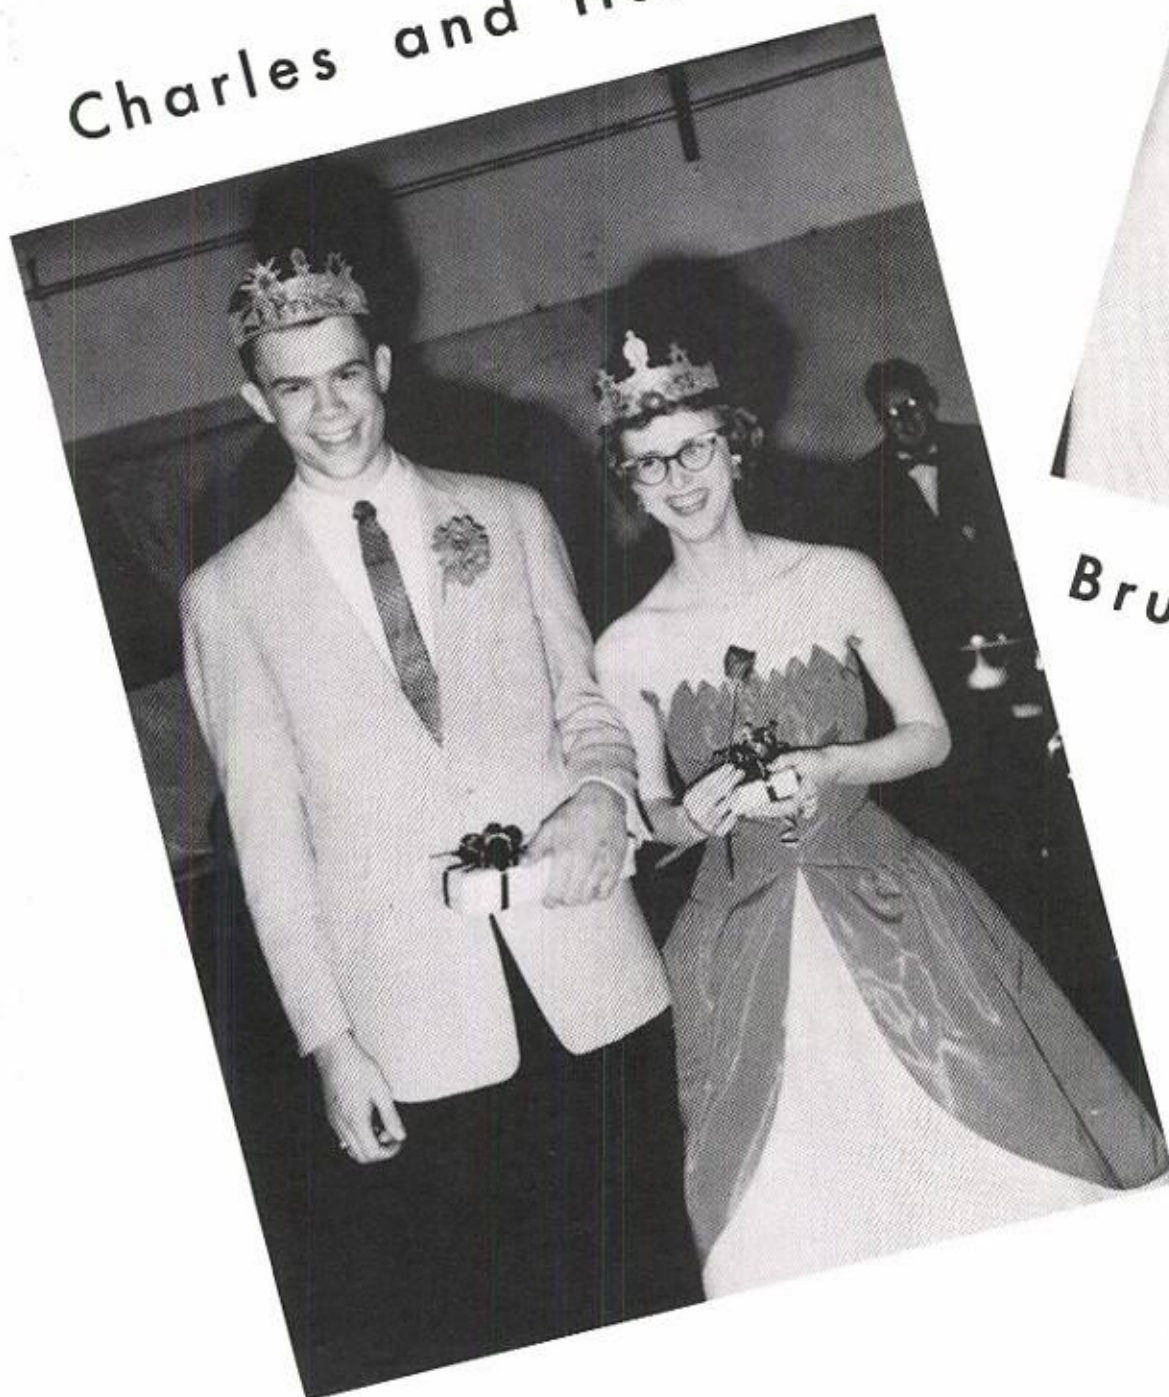

SOPHOMORES were elected as servers for the pre-prom banquet held at the United Church.

Prince and Princess Pep

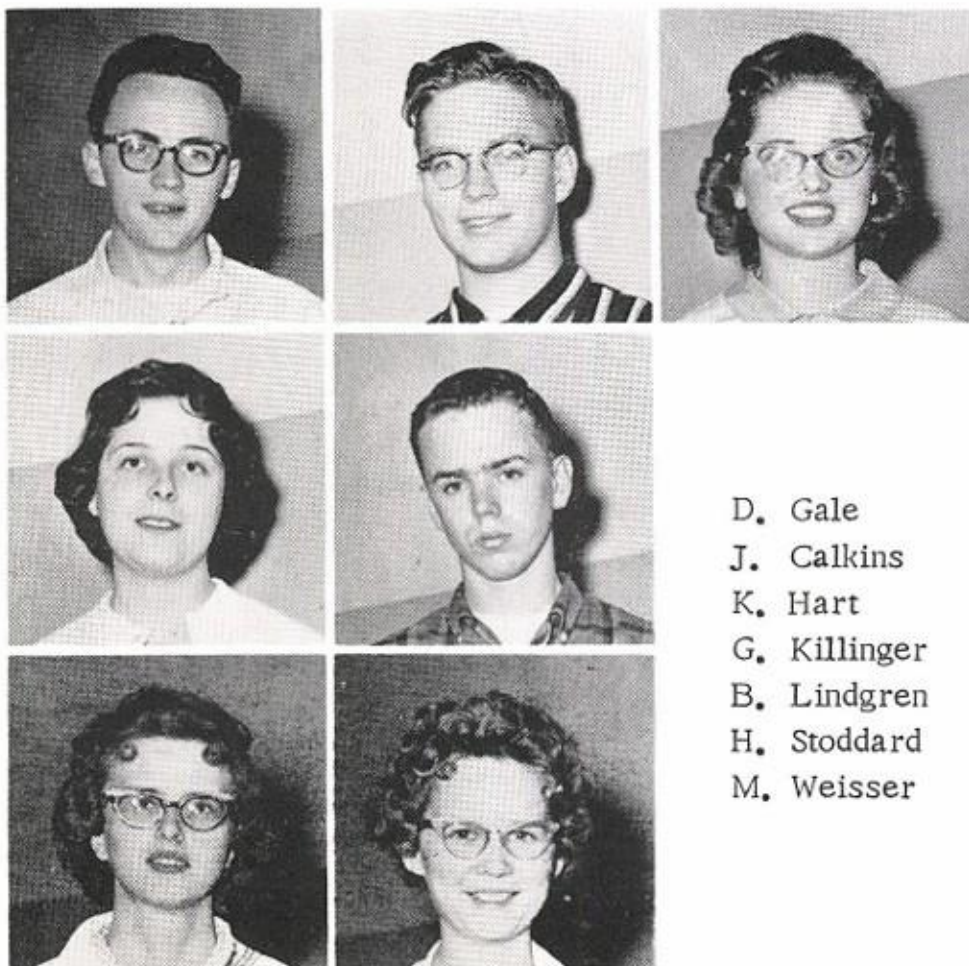

Nine senior boys and nine senior girls were contenders for Prince and Princess Pep. Students attending the Pep-Club sponsored dance chose Charles Bahr and Helen Stoddard as Prince and Princess Pep. First attendants were Bruce Smebakken and Gretchen Killinger; second attendants were Harold Kruse and Darlene Whitehead. The Prince and Princess Pep Dance is the final semi-formal dance of the year.

The task of publishing the BISON BELLOWS falls upon the shoulders of the journalism class and their advisor, Mrs. Betty Redfield. Chasing down news, finding pictures, racing to meet deadlines, and much hard work is the groundwork that must be laid before each of the issues of the Bellows goes on sale.

An honorary journalistic society, Quill and Scroll is open to any student who has had forty-one column inches published and is in the upper one-third of his class. This year seven of the qualifying students joined.

To be a member of the National Honor Society is the highest honor which may be conferred upon a student. The first members of the Class of 1960 were chosen in the spring of '59; these were: Bill Wilson, Helen Stoddard, Robert Reider, and John Hartman. To be a member, a student must have four qualities: scholarship, character, service, and leadership. These are the objectives which the National Honor Society promotes.

12 Year Classmates

This year's 12-year classmates boast the largest membership in the history of the school.

Although high academic standards are a prime factor of the Latin Club, an initiation and annual picnic are featured social activities.

Helen Stoddard and West Twomey were selected by auditions from among 900 South Dakota band members to attend All State Band in Aberdeen, March 25 and 26. Mr. Hilgenberg accompanied the two to the eastern part of the state for the festivities.

Voices rose in song following the melody these hands played every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of the school year. Mrs. Hilgenberg gave immeasurable support to Mrs. Millett and Hilgie when each directed the choir.

These hands direct the band and choir of good ole H.S.H.S. in concerts and festivals several times each year. All the hard work pays off in the results of a concert well given.

Music

Hilgie's band started the year with a bang at CSTC's Homecoming. At football games, the band's bright uniforms were the colorful display for the half-time show. Band members again donned uniforms for the Winter Concert.

Events

In March Hilgie took two to All-State Band at Aberdeen. Then at Rapid City everyone again marched for the Band Festival. The band finished the year with the Spring Concert and said good-bye to the Seniors at Commencement.

GAIL HILGENBERG

BETTY MILLETT

Mr. Gail Hilgenberg directs the sixty-six member choir. Twelve of the group were chosen to participate in the All-State Chorus held in Mitchell. Three exciting days of practices and public performances was deemed a satisfactory reward for the many hours of practice by these students.

The vocal section of the Music Festival held in Lead for schools in this area provided an enjoyable experience for the entire choir membership.

H-Club

H-Club is open to anyone who has lettered in football, basketball or track. This year the club adopted a new set of rules during the school term that its members must uphold.

H-Club sponsored a dance in the gym and crowned as queen Sally Brimmer, a member of the senior class.

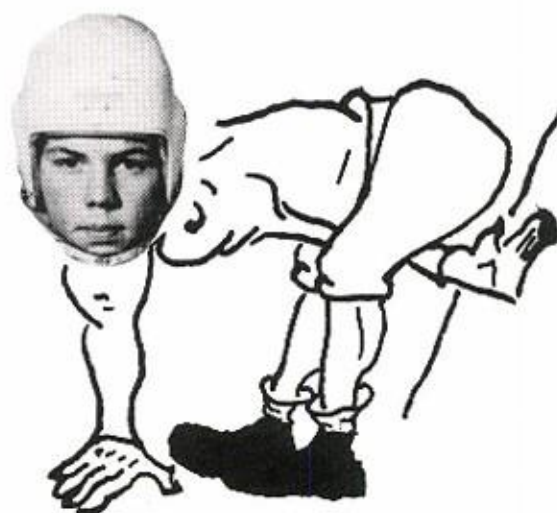

Members who have maintained the school's scholastic average are eligible for membership in National Athletic Scholastic Society. Members include James Johnston, Bub Reider, Dick Dodd, Ron Schroeder, Bruce Smebakken, Lloyd Duncan, Frank Schroth, and Don O'Malley.

The image features a minimalist, abstract design. It consists of several large, solid black triangles and thin black lines arranged in a symmetrical, zig-zag pattern. The triangles are oriented with their vertices pointing downwards, while the lines form upward-pointing peaks. The overall effect is a rhythmic, geometric composition. The text "Junior High" is centered in the middle of the image, between the upper and lower geometric sections.
